■ Build up

- Exhibitors may take possession of their stand according to the above schedule.
- Please plan your deliveries according to traffic restrictions in France during the week end. For more information: www.bison-fute.equipement.gouv.fr in "l'Espace media".
- All workers entering the exhibition during build up and dismantling MUST wear individual protection equipment (safety shoes, hard hats...).
- No cars will be allowed inside the halls. Lorries traffic will be controlled.
- Empty packing materials must be removed immediately and stored by the exhibitors or their freight forwarders.
- Motor driven handling equipment will not be allowed inside the halls as from Thursday 4 march at 6 pm. Any unloading during the last day before and of build up must be done manually or with trolleys.
- Final set up operations, including cleaning, must be completed by Friday 5 March at 10 pm. Failing this, pallets and other identified items which have not been cleaned away will be placed on the exhibitor's stand. Collection and delivery of these items will be charged to the exhibitor.

■ Dismantling

- As from 5.30 pm on Wednesday 10 March until 10 pm. Trolleys will be allowed inside the halls as from 6.30 pm and motor driven handling equipment as from 7.30 pm.
- Empty packings stored on your demand will be delivered on your booth as from 7.30 pm.
- Keep any equipment or products likely to be stolen (plasma screens, computers, personal belongings...) in a safe place. For more safety, we would highly recommend that one of your team members keeps a constant and close watch on your stand until complete removal.
- All equipment and decorations must be removed from the halls on Friday 12 March at 11 am. The goods and equipments which are not removed within this deadline will be stored by the organiser at the exhibitor's expense.

■ Return to original condition

- Exhibitors must vacate their stand area leaving it clear of all components.
- A cleaning service including removal of waste is proposed by EUROPAIN (Check this service on www.europainservices.com « my stand »).
- Any damage incurred during build up and dismantling will be charged to the exhibitors who is also responsible for his stand builders.

■ Delivery schedule during opening

Deliveries are allowed only for one hour (between 7.30 and 8.30 am) after being given a delivery pass at the exhibitors entrance. No storage is accepted outside the stands.

Please advise the organiser of daily deliveries.
